All Teachers, Artists, Art Educators, Authors and Illustrators

heARTlines is back!

Returning to the Mundaring Arts Centre from 15 May to 28 June 2015.

This Festival of Children's Literature and Book Illustration is biennially hosted by the Mundaring Arts Centre (MAC) in Perth's hills. The festival celebrates the artistic process of book creation – especially writing and illustration – and brings some of WA's most talented children's book authors and illustrators to our community.

The heARTlines festival presents:

- A captivating exhibition of book illustrations
Featuring artwork by Wendy Binks, Karen Blair, Kelly Canby, Gabriel Evans, James Foley, Kylie Howarth, Kylie Hughes-Odgers, Frané Lessac, Patricia Negus, Den Scheer, Briony Stewart and, by special arrangement with The Lit Centre, Terry Denton's original artworks for Jandamarra, written by Mark Greenwood. Opening on Friday 15 May at 7pm this free event provides an opportunity for you to meet some of the participating authors and illustrators - ALL WELCOME!
- School workshops and talks with authors and illustrators
All materials are supplied: just book, turn up and MAC will take care of the rest. Artists include James Foley (illust The Last Viking Returns), Jen Banyard (author Mystery at Riddle Gully), Gabriel Evans (illust Annie's Snails, Roses Are Blue, Woodland Whiskers series) and Mark Greenwood (author Jandamarra, Midnight) - see over for all the details...
- Visits to local high schools by authors
Deb Fitzpatrick, author of The Amazing Spencer Gray, Have You Seen Ally Queen? and 90 Packets of Instant Noodles, Tuesday 2 June 2015
AJ Betts, author of Zac & Mia, Wavelength and Shutterspeed on Tuesday 16 June 2015
- Guided tours of the exhibition throughout May and June
Primary and high school classes are invited to informally visit MAC and the heARTlines exhibition free of charge throughout the festival. Call MAC first and we'll organise a free guided tour...
- Talks and workshops for the general public
The festival's public program will be held weekends and evenings, and includes drawing workshops, talks and poetry readings. Details to follow.

Full schools' program on the back page, with information on all presenters inside.
To book a session or for further information about the festival, please contact MAC via email at info@mundaringartscentre.com.au or call 9295 3991

Costs have been kept to the same low price as previous festivals:
$4 per student (excluding GST) for all school sessions held at MAC
$100 (excluding GST) per session for the high school visits

We look forward to seeing you there!

ABOUT THE 2015 heARTlines PRESENTERS

JEN BANYARD

www.jenbanyard.com

Jen Banyard writes adventures of humour, warmth and insight. Her books include Spider Lies, Mystery at Riddle Gully and the latest, Riddle Gully Runaway, which will be serialised in the West's (Ed!) lift out in Term 3. Her sessions blend fun with the practical side of writing to encourage and inspire.

Wednesday 24 June 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 60 students per session | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student

AJ BETTS

www.ajbetts.com

AJ Betts is an Australian author, speaker, teacher and cyclist. Zac & Mia, her most recent novel for teenagers, won the 2012 Text Prize, the 2014 SCBWI Crystal Kite Award, and the 2014 Ethel Turner prize for young adults at the NSW Premier's Literary Award - it will soon be available in 12 countries! AJ's other novels are Wavelength and Shutterspeed.

KAREN BLAIR

www.karenblair.com.au

Karen grew up in the Perth hills where she spent a lot of time drawing and writing. She draws characters that are young, old and in-between, as well as the wonderful creatures that live in Australia. Her background is landscape painting and she incorporates this into her illustrations whenever possible. Karen lives in Fremantle with her husband, daughter and cat, working from her garden studio and teaching primary school art which allows her to play with clay, sculpture and all sorts of other lovely art materials - the students get to have a go sometimes too.

Wednesday 20 May 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 30 students per session | hands-on workshop | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student (materials supplied)

RAEWYN CAISLEY

www.raewyncaisley.com

Having spent half her life in New Zealand and half in Australia it is no wonder her books have a lot to do with 'place'. Raewyn is the author of more than 25 books for children of all ages. Her most successful work, The Mermaids Tale, was the biggest selling Aussie Nibble of all time but she hopes her picture book Hello From Nowhere does even better. It is about living in Australia after all!

Wednesday 10 June 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 60 students per session | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student

GABRIEL EVANS

gabriel-evans.blogspot.com.au | www.creationinateapot.com

Gabriel Evans creates magical worlds through a paintbrush. He illustrated his first book at the age of 17, now aged 23 he illustrates for Walker Books and the Five Mile Press. Working in a small messy studio, Gabriel uses traditional materials including watercolour, gouache and coloured inks to create classically styled paintings with a contemporary twist. He runs regular workshops through library, school and festival programs.

Wednesday 10 June 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 30 students per session | hands-on workshop | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student (materials supplied)

DEB FITZPATRICK

debfitzpatrick.com.au

Deb lives in Fremantle with a dog, two guinea pigs, two kids and a husband. She has four books, with a fifth being published in 2015. 90 Packets of Instant Noodles and Have You Seen Ally Queen were both named Notable Books by the CBCA. The Amazing Spencer Gray will be published in the USA soon. She also has an adult book, called The Break.

Tuesday 2 June (date flexible) | 3 sessions of 1 period duration available | max 60 students per session | presented at your school | $100 per session

JAMES FOLEY

www.jamesfoley.com.au

James is a children's author and illustrator. His book In The Lion was selected for the International Youth Library's White Raven list in 2013. The Last Viking (author Norman Jorgensen) won the 2012 SCBWI Crystal Kite Award, the 2012 WA Young Readers' Hoffman Award, and a 2012 Children's Book Council of Australia Junior Judges Award. James is an ambassador for Books In Homes and Room To Read Australia, and is the current Illustrator coordinator for SCBWI WA. He works in pen, ink, pencil, charcoal and watercolour. He also uses digital tools such as Adobe Photoshop, Corel Painter on a Wacom graphics tablet.

Wednesday 24 June 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 30 students per session | hands-on workshop | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student (materials supplied)

MARK GREENWOOD

www.markgreenwood.com.au

Mark Greenwood enjoys sailing on ghost ships, searching for lost treasure, wrestling crocodiles and telling the greatest lies on earth! His award winning books examining history, myths and legends have been honoured internationally. Marks recent publications include Jandamarra, illustrated by Terry Denton, and Midnight - the story of a light horse, illustrated by Frané Lessac.

Wednesday 27 May 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 60 students per session | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student

MARK PARDOE

www.markpardoe.com.au

Mark Pardoe was born in England but moved to Melbourne after finally accepting that he had no chance of making it as either a soccer star or a racing driver in his country of birth. After foolishly working in some serious jobs, Mark eventually retrained as a primary school teacher before discovering he could also write funny stuff for kids. Mark currently lives in Perth with his family and several small unnamed geckos that seem to like it in their house.

Wednesday 20 May 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 60 students per session | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student

BRIONY STEWART

www.brionystewart.com

Briony was born in Perth back when Ninja Turtles were 'the coolest'. With a father in Zoology and an artistic mother, Briony was either going to grow up to be a traveling entomologist or a famous artist like Picasso. While studying at university, she developed a passion for children's book creation and quickly came to admit she preferred the theorems of Calvin and Hobbes to Foucault! Briony's first book, Kumiko and the Dragon, won the 2007 Aurealis Award for Children's Short Fiction. Since then, Briony has studied at the May Gibbs Children's Literature Trust in Melbourne, presented at libraries and festivals and has held three successful exhibitions of her illustrated work. Briony lives, paints and writes in Perth and proof-reads aloud to a black and white rabbit named Winston.

Wednesday 27 May 2015 | 10-11.30am OR 12.45-2.15pm | max 30 students per session | hands-on workshop | includes tour of exhibition at MAC | $4 per student (materials supplied)
